

FRED WEBER, INC. TITLE VI POLICY AND COMPLAINT PROCEDURE INDIANA

COVERAGE

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin in programs receiving federal financial assistance. Other classifications are also protected against discrimination with respect to participation in programs receiving federal financial assistance. Any person who believes that he or she has been excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of or otherwise subjected to discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, age, disability, religion, ancestry, income status or Limited English proficiency by Fred Weber, Inc. may file a complaint under this Policy. A complaint may also be filed by a representative on behalf of such a person.

Limited English Proficiency (LEP) status includes persons who do not speak English as their primary language and who have a limited ability to read, speak, write or understand English. These individuals are entitled to language assistance at no cost to them. The federal government and those receiving assistance from the federal government must take reasonable steps to ensure that LEP persons have a meaningful access to the programs, services and information those entities provide. Fred Weber, Inc. will provide translators or any other reasonable measures, at no cost to LEP persons, to assure meaningful access to Fred Weber, Inc.'s programs, services and information.

HOW TO FILE A COMPLAINT

A Complainant may file his or her complaint by mail, facsimile or e-mail. Any person with a disability may request to file his or her complaint using an alternative format. Fred Weber, Inc. will acknowledge complaints received by facsimile or e-mail and will process them once it establishes the identity of the Complainant. Complainants must mail a signed, original copy of any facsimile or e-mail transmittal to Fred Weber, Inc. to begin the complaint process.

Title VI complaints should be directed to either Julie Shields or Jason Bish, Fred Weber, Inc.'s Co-EEO Officers, as follows:

COMPLAINT INVESTIGATION PROCEDURES

Fred Weber, Inc. will conduct a prompt and impartial investigation of all allegations of discrimination and take prompt effective corrective action when a claim of discrimination is substantiated.

No one may intimidate, threaten, coerce or engage in any other discriminatory conduct against anyone because they have taken action or participated in an action to secure rights protected by the civil rights laws.

Any complaint should be submitted within 180 days of the alleged discrimination, although prompt and immediate submission of any discrimination complaint is preferred. Anyone filing a complaint may be represented by an attorney or other representative of his or her choosing. Any Complainant shall have the right to present witnesses, testimony and any other evidence to support such a complaint of discrimination.

Fred Weber, Inc. will take final action on any complaint received pursuant to this Policy within 60 days of receiving the complaint. A written decision that includes a synopsis of the facts and explanation of the outcome will be provided to the Complainant.

The Complainant's identity shall be kept confidential except to the extent necessary for carrying out an investigation. All complaints shall be kept confidential.

If the Complainant is not satisfied with the written decision of Fred Weber, Inc., the Complainant may request reconsideration of Fred Weber, Inc.'s decision and submit any additional information to refute the conclusions and decision of Fred Weber, Inc. The Complainant may identify any relevant facts or information which Complainant believes may have been overlooked by Fred Weber, Inc. in making its original decision.

These procedures do not deny the right of any person to file a formal complaint with any governmental agency or affect any individual's right to seek private counsel for any complaint alleging discrimination.
